Subject: Formal Incident Report – Attendance and Punctuality

Dear RICHARD,

This letter serves as a formal Incident Report concerning your attendance and punctuality record on February 24, 2026. You were marked absent without official leave (AWOL) on the date(s) listed below. Absence without notice is a serious violation of company policy.

Attendance Issue: Absent without notice (AWOL)

It is critical that you understand that habitual tardiness and attendance violations negatively affect team operations, productivity, and overall workplace efficiency. While we understand that unforeseen circumstances may occur, employees are expected to notify their immediate supervisor in advance whenever possible.

You are hereby requested to submit a written explanation within twenty-four (24) hours upon receipt of this notice. Further violations of company attendance policies may lead to more serious disciplinary action in accordance with company rules and regulations.

We trust that you will take the necessary corrective measures to improve your attendance and adhere strictly to company policies moving forward.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, you may coordinate with the Human Resources Department.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Human Resources Department
