Subject: Formal Incident Report – Attendance and Punctuality

Dear ZOE,

This letter serves as a formal Incident Report concerning your attendance and punctuality record on February 19, 2026.

Based on the attendance log, you were scheduled to report to work but arrived late by 120 minutes, resulting in 120 minutes of tardiness. This incident marks your 1st occurrence of late arrival for the month.

The following tardiness records have been documented:

Date	Minutes Late
February 04, 2026	120 minutes

It is critical that you understand that habitual tardiness negatively affects team operations, productivity, and overall workplace efficiency. While we understand that unforeseen circumstances may occur, employees are expected to notify their immediate supervisor in advance whenever possible.

You are hereby requested to submit a written explanation within twenty-four (24) hours upon receipt of this notice. Further violations of company attendance policies may lead to more serious disciplinary action in accordance with company rules and regulations.

We trust that you will take the necessary corrective measures to improve your attendance and adhere strictly to company policies moving forward.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, you may coordinate with the Human Resources Department.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Human Resources Department

TRES MARIAS
